Harrison-Jaynes.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Fredericksburg, Va., February 7.—One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence in this city of Mrs. Ida L. Jaynes, daughter, Mrs. Ida L. Jaynes, becoming the bride of Dr. Gessner Harrison, a native of this State, a graduate of the University of Virginia, now a prominent practicing physician of New York City. The parlor was handsomely decorated with running cedar, palms and cut flowers. Rev. John R. Jacobs, pastor of the Methodist Church, performed the ceremony, and the bride was given away by her brother, Robert L. Jaynes. Miss Lucile Virginia Jaynes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was L. E. Kirkland, of Pittsburgh, Pa. There were four flower girls—Misses Margaret and Dorothy Jaynes, nieces of the bride, and Mattie and Thelma Frazer, of Spotsylvania county. They scattered violets in the pathway of the bride.

The wedding music was skilfully rendered by Professor E. A. Franklin, Miss Lucille Hassell and Miss Mary Fulton, violins and piano.

The bride wore an exquisite, imported, white hand-embroidered gown of white satin, with pearls. The bride veil was of real old lace, caught with violets and pearl ornaments. She carried a bouquet of double white violets.

The maid of honor wore a costume of imported cream chiffon, with panels of altar lace, over a gown of silk, and she carried a large bouquet of bridesmaid roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held, and an elegant wedding collation served. The decorations were pink and green.

Dr. and Mrs. Harrison left on the evening train for an extended Southern trip, after which they will be at home in New York City.
